The Purpose of Women's Executive Club

The purpose of WEC is to give women executives the opportunity for fellowship with their peers in diverse fields, to promote the image of the woman executive, to further the interrelationship of such executives, and to promote the general welfare of their business and professional community.

In order to qualify as a member of WEC under the By-Laws, an applicant must be a female executive of good character and reputation in conformity with the image of the ethical businesswoman. "Female Executive" is defined to mean one who is the owner or co-owner of a full-time business and who is responsible for the activities of at least one other person or who has been in the business for at least two years; a professional (such as a doctor, dentist, attorney or accountant by way of example, but not limited to these categories); a manager of business at an executive level, or an independent agent/contractor at managerial level.
